

Everyone draws AND writes — a role means you lead that part.

Team name (make it heroic!)

One sentence: what is our comic about?

The rule: your hero's comic power is your real strength in disguise.

Your name

Hero name

My real-life superpower (from the workshop)

...in disguise, it becomes this comic power:

Her weakness (every hero needs one!)

Catchphrase

Draw her! (costume, colours, symbol)

Backstory in 3 sentences (where is she from? what does she want?)

Real world-building = the reader believes the place is real. Rules make it real.

Our world's name

The setting (city? reef? space school?)

3 rules of our world (what's possible? what's forbidden? what does everyone know?)

The villain (name + what they can do)

The real-world stereotype the villain stands for (the lie our comic will smash)

Allies & helpers (the mentor, friends, sidekicks)

Draw the world map or key place
